Did 9xflix site is illegal to use?

The site was indeed illegal as the site did not have any permission. Also, one can get arrested for using this site, as it was proved about this site. But the user did not have any fear of arrest. So they use this site like all other normal sites. Also, this site did not show any cookies, so users like it more than other sites.

Also, this site was not popular in India only. It was a world-famous website. People from all over the world download film from this website.

Also, some people get arrested in some countries for violating the laws. But apart from that, they again started to use this site after paying compensation.
